TODAY'S QUOTE

Know anyone who would be interested in joining the CYSO family?

Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestras' 2011-2012 Season Auditions are quickly approaching. This year's auditions will be held from April 1 through April 23.

All audition information, including an online registration form, is available on the CYSO website: 2011-2012 Season Audition Information. At www.cyso.org, students will find everything they need to know about auditioning, including how to apply for an audition via the online registration.

On our website you will also find several "My CYSO" stories from present and past members of our ensembles. These essays illustrate how each year CYSO assembles the highest quality orchestras to provide the greatest musical experience possible for your students. If you know of any dynamic young musicians who would similarly benefit from our programs please pass along this information to them!
